

AN ACT

To facilitate the Entry of Citizens of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, upon the basis of the responsibility assumed by the United States as the administering authority of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands under the Trusteeship Agreement approved by the Security Council of the United Nations on April 2, 1947, and by the United States Government on July 25, 1947, citizens of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands shall have the right of unrestricted entry and residence as immigrants into the United States upon presentation at the point of entry of such proof of Trust Territory citizenship as may be prescribed by the Attorney General.
