Dear Senator Sotoa:

The President has asked me to thank you for your letter of May 10th, expressing your warm endorsement of his efforts to resolve the tragic conflict in Vietnam.

The road that we travel in Vietnam is not an easy one, and there will be difficult days ahead. But the commitment of this country to justice and freedom is a deep and vital part of our heritage.

You may be sure that the President is heartened to learn of the support of the President of the Senate of American Samoa, and deeply grateful for the knowledge that your prayers are with him.

With warm regards.

Sincerely,

Clifford L. Alexander, Jr.
Deputy Special Counsel
