A HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

Extending the life of the Future Political Status Commission of the Congress of Micronesia and requiring a final report to be submitted during the Fifth Regular Session of the Congress in July, 1969.

1 WHEREAS, Senate Joint Resolution No. 25, adopted by the Congress
2 during its Third Regular Session, established the Future Political 3 Status Commission charged with the general duty of investigating the 4 range of alternatives open to Micronesians in choosing their consti-
5 tutional and future political status; and

6 WHEREAS, in January, 1968, this Commission began a comprehensive 7 study of the responsibility delegated to it by the Congress of Micro-8 nesia; and

9 WHEREAS, the scope of this study requires that a substantial amount
10 of additional consideration be given to it by the members of the Future
11 Political Status Commission; now, therefore,

12 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Congress of 13 Micronesia, Fourth Regular Session, 1968, the Senate concurring, that 14 the Future Political Status Commission continue to conduct a study and 15 investigation as to the range of alternatives open to Micronesians with 16 respect to their choice of political status, as mandated to it by Senate
17 Joint Resolution No. 25 of the Third Regular Session of the Congress, 18 and submit its final report during the Fifth Regular Session of the 19 Congress of Micronesia; and

20 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all expenditures incurred in the conduct 21 of the study directed by this Resolution be approved by the Chairman of 22 the Commission and be paid by vouchers and warrants of the Commission 23 from the appropriation made by the Congress of Micronesia; and

24 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Joint Resolution 25 be transmitted to the High Commissioner and the Director of Budget and
