SUBJECT: Request for Advice

We would appreciate your advice on the following questions as soon as possible:

1. Is a Peace Corps Country Director empowered to terminate a Volunteer who voices disapproval of American policy when that policy directly affects the country in which he is stationed?
2. Does the High Commissioner of the Trust Territory of the Pacific or any officer serving over or under him have the power to declare an American Citizen persona non grata (or the equivalent) and order him out of the Territory?
