Charles Shorter

[REDACTED]

The Learned Justice is an exceptional catch. However, we can't quite reel him in yet. His present term on the bench ends December 7th. However, he'll have some cases which he will take home after the 7th and submit opinions later. He is very enthusiastic about Peace Corps, and I have tried to keep the spark going with my best salesman approach (a subliminal soft-sell).

There are other irons in the fire for the Justice -- an appellate judgeship (not likely due to the political climate), and private practice in an office that would be established in the building of his son's dental firm. The latter idea is still preliminary, however he doesn't appear enthusiastic about it. At any rate we could not get him until after the 1st of January.

He hopes to make a final decision soon and will get in touch with me. I suggested too that he might want to write [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. You might think it wise that [REDACTED] write to [REDACTED].

I will keep you up to date. The Justice is married, by the way, and his wife apparently likes to keep active. Could you send some data on living conditions in Saipan? What type of activities might she get involved in? Also, would she travel with the Justice, and what sort of life style could she expect?
