Memorandum for: NSC Secretariat
The White House

Subject: Letter from Mr. A. A. Smyser Enclosing an Editorial Relating to Micronesia

Mr. A. A. Smyser, the editor of the Honolulu Star Bulletin, wrote to Mr. Klein enclosing an editorial carried in his paper. He stated he would welcome any comment the Administration might wish to make.

Attached is a copy of the reply sent to Mr. Smyser and signed by John A. Armitage, Director, Office of United Nations Political Affairs. The response was approved by appropriate officials in the Departments of the Interior, State and Defense, and by the President's Personal Representative on the future status of Micronesia, Ambassador Franklin Haydn Williams.

The delay in responding to Mr. Smyser was occasioned by the need fully to involve Ambassador Williams in this subject which could have a bearing on his responsibilities.
