

1. Memorandum to Assistant Attorney General Rehnquist (8/13/71)
Re: Power of Congress to bind a subsequent Congress.

[DoJ letter dated 2/21/84 listing
20 documents]

1. Memorandum to (then) Assistant Attorney General Rehnquist, dated August 17, 1971, concerning the power of one Congress to bind a subsequent one.

This document is an internal Office of Legal Counsel document, the release of which ordinarily could be withheld pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). According to Mr. Marcuse's recollection, the document has been made available during the course of the Northern Mariana Status negotiations to the Office of Micronesian Status Negotiations and to Mr. Willens, the attorney for the Mariana Status Commission. Accordingly, you already have that document, and it appears redundant to furnish at your expense an additional copy to you.

[DoJ letter dated 6/26/84: denied on ground that it was previously released.]

2. August 13, 1971 memorandum from Herman Marcuse to William H. Rehnquist, "Micronesian Negotiations," with two 4-page attachments

Released in Full 08/26/86