OTHER
(includes government expenses, Space, Foreign Aid, Agriculture, Highways, etc.)

Since 1946, the U.S. Military has received one TRILLION dollars -- 1/10 of this, or one hundred BILLION dollars ($100,000,000,000) has been spent on the Vietnam War. (Figures based on "The Budget in Brief", U.S. Gov't. Printing Office)

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- 1) File a return showing tax due but refuse to pay all or part of the tax.
- 2) On the 1040 form, Line #17, "Less Adjustments, take off that percentage that went for military expenditures.
- 3) Don't file a return.
- 4) Claim so many dependents on your W-4 form that no tax is withheld, then file and don't pay.
- 5) Instead of the W-4, file the W-4E, which will enable you to have no federal taxes withheld.
- 6) Don't pay the 2 1/2% income tax surcharge.
- 7) Don't pay the 10% telephone excise tax.
