The Committee of Solidarity for Puerto Rican Liberation (COSPRIL), a national organization formed in July of 1970 at the CRV National Assembly, is a group of North Americans, many of whom have lived and worked in Latin America. They concern themselves with the Puerto Rican independence movement through contact with Puerto Rican people here in the U.S., and fully and actively support the struggle for Puerto Rican Independence.

One task they have assumed is to inform people about the realities of the U.S. colonial presence in Puerto Rico and about the struggle being waged by the independence movement, and toward this end they publish a newsletter. For further information contact:

THE FRIENDS OF MICRONESIA is a recently formed group of people interested in Micronesia. Many are returned Peace Corps Volunteers who spent several years there only to come back and find that most Americans are unaware even of its existence, let alone that its fate rests in the hands of our government. They hope to see, and help create a new public awareness on the part of the American people concerning Micronesia and the patently colonialist administration of the islands by the U.S. Office of Territories. Unless we act immediately to make the voice of the Congress of Micronesia and the Micronesian people heard on this side of the Pacific, the culture and people of Micronesia will be smothered under the steamroller of American military interests in the Pacific.
