

TITLE V

9-20-72

14
7Applicable LawsSECTION 501.

(a) The treaties, international agreements, and generally recognized principles of international law applicable to the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands on the day preceding the effective date of this Compact shall be applicable to Micronesia, as well as the treaties and international agreements made applicable to Micronesia pursuant to Section 202 of this Compact.

(b) The statutory law of the United States applicable to the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands on the day preceding the effective day of this Compact shall not be applicable to Micronesia except as otherwise provided in this Compact or in other agreements between the United States and Micronesia.

SECTION 502.

(a) Treaties and international agreements applicable to Micronesia shall have the force of internal law in Micronesia without the need of implementing legislation if they are self-executing, regardless of whether such treaties or international agreements became applicable to Micronesia prior to or after the effective date of this Compact. A treaty or international agreement shall be presumed to be self-executing, if the United States has not enacted implementing legislation at the time of its proclamation by the President.

(b) The Government of Micronesia agrees to enact whatever domestic legislation is appropriate or required to enforce or implement those treaties, international agreements, and generally recognized principles of international law applicable to Micronesia pursuant to Section 501(a) of this Compact which are not self-executing. Such implementing legislation shall follow the corresponding legislation enacted by the United States as closely as possible, consistent with local conditions. The implementing legislation enacted by the United States shall, however, have the force of internal law in Micronesia (1) pending the enactment of the Micronesian legislation provided for in this subsection; or (2) if in the opinion of the United States, the legislation enacted by the Government of Micronesia fails to implement adequately any treaty, international agreement, or generally recognized principle of international law, and the Government of the United States so notifies the Government of Micronesia.

(c) The Government of Micronesia undertakes to comply with and to enforce faithfully the treaties, international agreements, and generally recognized principles of international law and laws set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

SECTION 503.

(a) The Government of Micronesia shall adopt and enforce the procedures necessary (1) to protect the personnel, property, installations, services, programs, and official information maintained by the Government of the United States in Micronesia pursuant to this Compact, and (2) to implement such services and programs. Such procedures shall follow the corresponding United States statutes and regulations as closely as possible, consistent with local conditions. Such procedures shall include appropriate and adequate civil and criminal remedies against:

1. Fraud against the Government of the United States.
2. Theft, embezzlement, or destruction of property belonging to or in the custody of the Government of the United States; or the and theft, /unauthorized use of official information of the Government of the United States.
3. Interference with the operation of installations, programs, or services maintained by the Government of the United States in Micronesia pursuant to this Compact.

(b) If Micronesia fails to establish the procedures provided for in subsection (a) of this section, the pertinent statutes and regulations of the United States shall have the force of internal law in Micronesia, pending the enactment of such legislation by Micronesia.

SECTION 504.

(a) Nothing in this Compact shall be construed as constituting a submission of the United States to the jurisdiction of any of the courts of Micronesia.

(b) The United States Court of Claims shall not have jurisdiction over any claim against the United States growing out of or dependent upon this Compact.

(c) The provisions of section 1346(b) and of chapter 171, title 28, United States Code shall not be applicable to any claim arising in Micronesia.
