SEC 203. The constitutional convention shall prepare a proposed constitution for the Mariana Islands which shall be submitted not later than one year after the convening of the constitutional convention to the High Commissioner for transmission to the President of the United States. If the President of the United States finds that the proposed constitution includes a satisfactory bill of rights, and is not contrary to the provisions of this Act and the Constitution of the United States of America, he shall so certify to the High Commissioner of the Trust Territory, who shall so advise the Marianas District Legislature which shall dissolve the constitutional convention. If the President finds that the proposed constitution does not satisfactorily provide for a bill of rights, or is contrary to the provisions of this Act or the Constitution of the United States, he shall so advise the High Commissioner of the Trust Territory of the Pacific
