Dear Paul:

After 5-1/2 weeks of a completely mind-blowing experience in Saipan, our negotiations ended with the enclosed Joint Communique. I would be most interested in your expert judgment regarding the general direction of our negotiations and how they may affect the direction or directions in which the Joint Committee is proceeding. Your interview with Mike Malone of the Pacific Daily News created quite a stir within the Marianas, especially to the degree that it suggested that the Marianas eventually would have little choice but to re-integrate with Guam.

Sincerely,

Howard P. Willens
