RELATIONS AGREEMENT

PREAMBLE

Whereas the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands was placed under the administrative authority of the United States of America by means of the Trusteeship Agreement approved by the Security Council of the United Nations on April 2, 1947, and the United States of America on July 18, 1947; and

Whereas Article 6 of the Trusteeship Agreement provides that the administering authority shall:

"foster the development of such political institutions as are suited to the trust territory and shall promote the development of the inhabitants of the trust territory toward self-government or independence, as may be appropriate to the particular circumstances of the trust territory and its peoples and the freely expressed wishes of the peoples concerned"; and

Whereas the people of the Marianas District of the Trust Territory have clearly, and for over 20 years, expressed their desire by petition and local referendum to achieve self-government in the context of a close and permanent political relationship with the United States of America; and

Therefore, whereas the Marianas Political Status Commission was created by _____ pursuant to such petitions for the purpose of entering into negotiations with the United States regarding said permanent political relationship;

The Marianas Political Status Commission and the Personal Representative of the President of the United States have agreed that the future political status of the Marianas should be that of a Commonwealth incorporated into the United States and established in accordance with the following General Principles and the attached Agreed Articles.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1. The Marianas District of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, should become a self-governing commonwealth under the sovereignty of the United States, to be known as "The Commonwealth of the Mariana Islands".
2. The people of the Mariana Islands should form a government for these islands pursuant to a constitution of their own adoption as provided in the attached Agreed Articles.
3. The Government of the Marianas should be empowered to regulate the alienation of public and private lands so as to protect them from outside acquisition.
4. The Government of the United States should enjoy the right of eminent domain in the Marianas.
5. The people of the Marianas should be given the option of becoming citizens of the United States.

DECLASSIFIED

ARTICLE II. CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

SEC. 201. The people of the Mariana Islands shall form a government for these islands pursuant to a constitution of their own adoption as provided in these articles.

SEC. 202. The District legislature of the Marianas shall call a constitutional convention to write a constitution for the Mariana Islands, the provisions of which shall be in accordance with these Articles. Each of the present electoral districts within the Mariana Islands shall be represented in the Constitutional Convention.

SEC. 203. The Constitutional Convention shall prepare a proposed constitution for the Mariana Islands ^{in accordance with the Agreement of 1970} which shall be submitted not later than one year after the convening of the constitutional convention to the High Commissioner for transmission to the Congress of the United States. If the Congress of the United States finds that the proposed constitution is not contrary to the relevant provisions of the Constitution of the United States of America, legislation establishing the commonwealth pursuant to these articles, and any other relevant federal legislation, he shall so certify to the High Commissioner of the Trust Territory, who shall so advise the Marianas District Legislature which shall dissolve the Constitutional Convention. If the Congress finds that the proposed constitution does not meet the above criteria it shall so advise the High Commissioner of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands stating wherein in its judgment the constitution is deficient. The High Commissioner shall in turn submit such message to the Constitutional SEC. 436. Imports from the Commonwealth of the Marianas into the customs territory of the United States shall be subject to the same treatment as those from Guam.

SEC. 437. The Government of the Commonwealth of the Marianas shall submit to the President of the United States or his appointed representative an annual report on the administration of the funds transferred to the Government of the Commonwealth of the Marianas pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. Such reports shall be transmitted by the President to the Congress of the United States.

Chapter 4 - Government Property

SEC. 441. (a) Upon termination of the Trusteeship Agreement the title to all real and personal property in the Marianas District owned by the Government of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and all interests in such property including rights of use and including all right, title, or interest of the Government of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands in tidelands, submerged lands, or filled lands in or adjacent to the Mariana Islands held by the Government of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, shall be transferred to the Government of the Commonwealth of the Marianas.

DECLASSIFIED

The term "tidelands, submerged lands, or filled lands" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Section 1(a) of Public Law 83-183 (77 Stat. 338). This subsection shall not apply to any interest in lands, which interest by local or customary laws or rights is held in private or communal ownership.

(b) During the three-year period referred to in subsection (c), nothing herein shall impair the existing agreements between the Trust Territory Government and the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality thereof insofar as they relate to land use and retention, and the Government of the ^{Commonwealth of the} Marianas takes all such land as set forth in subsection (a) above subject to such agreements; provided, however, that such retention and use will at all times be consistent with the public purposes of the United States.

(c) (1) Within three years from the termination of the Trusteeship Agreement, the retention and use rights of the United States Government covered by subsection (b) shall terminate, unless, within that time the United States proceeds to acquire, in accordance with subsection (d) or (e) hereof whatever rights in such lands may be considered necessary for the public purposes of the United States.

(2) In any such acquisition, the amount to be paid for the property, or interest therein, shall be the current fair market value of the interest acquired, exclusive of any improvements made by the United States or ^{its} assigns, and less any amount or amounts previously paid, gratuitously or otherwise, therefor.

DECLASSIFIED

(d) The United States Government, its departments and agencies, are hereby authorized to, and may acquire for public purposes in the Commonwealth of the Mariana Islands property or any interest in property, including any temporary use, in accordance with this subsection and subsection (e). Such property, including that owned or controlled by private parties or the Government of the Commonwealth of the Marianas, may be acquired under this subsection by purchase, lease, exchange, gift, or otherwise under such terms and conditions as may be negotiated by the parties, subject to the limitations in Section 451 of this Article. 501?

(e) In the event the United States is unable to acquire property or an interest in property by negotiation in accordance with subsection (d), then it may acquire property or an interest therein in accordance with its Constitutional authority and presently established and future Federal law and procedures with respect to the acquisition of real property or an interest in real property.

(f) In the event an interest in private or communally-owned property is acquired pursuant to subsection (e) and the owner or owners disagree with the fair market value and wish a further review, the United States shall proceed immediately in accordance with established Federal law and procedures to have the fair market value determined with the right of appeal under said Federal law and procedures to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

DECLASSIFIED

Chapter 5 - Other Provisions

SEC 451. The chief executive of the Commonwealth of the Marianas shall be responsible for the faithful execution therein of the laws of the U.S. applicable to that Commonwealth. Whenever it becomes necessary in case of disaster, invasion, insurrection, or rebellion, or imminent danger thereof, or to prevent or suppress lawless violence, the chief executive of the Government of the Commonwealth of the Mariana Islands may request the assistance of the military or naval commanders of the Armed Forces of the United States, which assistance may be given at the discretion of such commanders if not disruptive of, or inconsistent with, their Federal responsibilities.

ARTICLE V - TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

SEC 501. So much of the legislation of the U.S. Congress implementing these articles as relates to Article I, II, III and V should become effective upon the enactment of that legislation. So much of that legislation as deals with article IV should become effective upon the termination of the trusteeship; provided, that the President shall have the power to make effective at an earlier date so much of the legislation relating to Article IV and so much of the constitution of the Commonwealth of the Marianas as is consistent with the continuation of the trusteeship.

SEC 502. The President of the United States shall appoint a commission of seven persons, at least three of whom shall be residents of the Mariana Islands, to survey the field of Federal statutes, including federal service and assistance programs, and to make recommendations to the Congress of the United States within twelve months after the implementation of these Articles by Congress as to which statutes of the United States not applicable to the Mariana Islands on such date shall be made applicable
