Subject: Scheduling of next round of negotiations

I learned yesterday that the next round of negotiations has been set for Saipan beginning on December 6 and, hopefully, ending on December 19 or 20. I am due to begin consulting with the client on Monday, November 26. We have been requested to send our materials out to Saipan early in the week of November 19. As a result, it looks as though we must plan on having final versions of our numerous memoranda prepared during the week of November 12. I shall be consulting with each of you to see if your other commitments will enable you to assist me in meeting this schedule.
