Dear Sig:

It was a pleasure seeing you the other night for dinner and I hope that I did not bend your ear too much on my current favorite topic. I can't resist the temptation, however, of sending you the enclosed background memorandum.

I direct your attention particularly to page 10 of the memorandum, which refers to the Washington Post, and I hasten to assure you that this memorandum was never prepared with the thought that it would be sent to anyone at the Post.

I hope to see you and Barbara again in the near future.

Sincerely,

Howard P. Willens

P.S. I think I might as well send one of these to Don in Tokyo also.
