Dear Father Hezel:

Thank you very much for having sent me copies of your two articles: "Who Shall Own The Schools?" and "A Sad Tale of Long Ago."

I have been very interested in reading them and was, of course, struck by the very excessive poignancy of the second one.

I am sorry to have missed by what I believe was a recent visit by you to Saipan, and would always be happy to see you when you are here.

Sincerely yours,
