SUBJECT: Establishment of the Task Force on Education for Self-Government

This officially establishes the Task Force on the program of Education for Self-Government which was approved in a meeting held early last month in Honolulu between members of the U.S. Status Delegation and representatives of the Joint Committee on Future Status of the Congress of Micronesia. This Task Force shall consist of the following officials:

1. Strik Yoma, Chairman
2. Augustine Moses, First Vice Chairman
3. George Callison, Second Vice Chairman
4. Sam McPhetres, Member
5. Jim Kleist, Member
6. Daiziro Nakamura, Member
7. Raymond Ulochong, Member
8. Bonifacio Basilius, Member
9. Gerald Craddock, Member
10. Elias Thomas, Member
11. Frank Camacho, Member
12. William Jackson, Member
13. Patrick Mangar, Member

To ensure that this Task Force has access to the best advice and guidance available in this administration, I am appointing the following officials as advisors to the Task Force:

Dwight Heine
N. Neiman Craley, Jr.
William Oyler
David Ramarui
Joseph Oakey

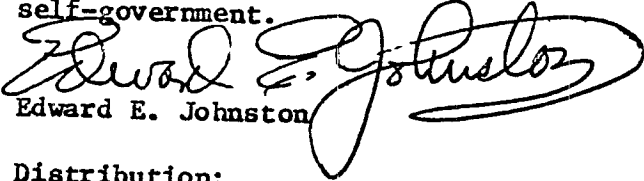

Boyd Mackenzie
James Manke
William Allen
Gerald MacPherson
Leonard Kaufer

These advisors shall be provided with all proposals, position papers, and any documents produced by the Task Force and as advisors they shall be free to provide comments and/or suggestions to the Task Force at any time. Written comments from any of the advisors shall be addressed to the Task Force Chairman who shall see to it that such comments are reproduced in sufficient quantity for distribution to all Task Force members and the other advisors.

By this memorandum all District Administrators are invited to take the necessary action to establish similar agencies as appropriate which shall have the responsibility of coordinating this program at the district level.

All participants in this program are urged to cooperate to the fullest extent possible to help make this a viable program of education for self-government.

Edward E. Johnston
