I. GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

The "District Labor Division" is headed by the District Employment Services Officer, a Trust Territory citizen who performs his duties under the general supervision of the District Administrator, with technical directions and supervision provided by the Trust Territory of the Labor Division, at Headquarters. The duties of this activity are broken into two phases, i.e., current and projected and both phases essentially are involved in compliances with and implementation of Public Law No. 3C-44 of the Trust Territory, a Law primarily concerned with manpower and labor utilization within the Trust Territory, and controls over importation of foreign labor.
