

The registration deadline for voters in the constitutional convention election has passed, and the deadline for candidates to file is May 14. The election will be held June 4, and preparations for the balloting are going well in all districts according to Strik Yoma, Director of Public Affairs, whose department has the responsibility for overseeing elections.

The annual meeting of the United Nations Trusteeship Council will take place in New York City beginning Monday, June 3. High Commissioner Johnston will again represent the TT, assisted by Representative Joab Sigrah of Kusaie and Senator Wilfred Kendall of the Marshalls representing the Congress of Micronesia.

A successful open heart operation was performed in Truk on a young man stabbed during a fight. Dr. Charles Jones performed the surgery, assisted by several Micronesian medical aides.

The semi-annual District Administrator's Conference will be held this month, in Truk, from May 13 to 17.

And finally, May First was Law Day in Micronesia, and the Presiding Judge of the Truk District Courts, Sokuichi Fritz, was chosen as the recipient of the annual Attorney General's Award for his outstanding contribution to the cause of law enforcement in the TT. Judge Fritz received his award in a special Law Day ceremony in Truk.