Dear Mr. Johnston:

Pursuant to agreement reached during the opening rounds of the Joint Land Committee deliberations of the Marianas Political Status Talks the United States Government is to proceed immediately to effect surveys of:

- (1) The Tanapag harbor area (197 acres)
- (2) The Isley Field contingency area (482 acres)
- (3) The southern boundary of the Tinian base
- (4) Farallon de Medinilla

Appropriate personnel from the Defense Department will shortly contact the Chief, Division of Lands and Surveys, Trust Territory Government to acquire necessary entry permits as may be required in the Tanapag and Isley areas. The Attorney General should contact the Micronesian Development Corporation to advise that surveys will shortly be conducted across its leased acreage.

Your assistance in relaying this information to appropriate personnel in your administration will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Sgt. Fred Radewagen

Director of Territorial Affairs

Hon. Edward E. Johnston
