Dear Mr. Howard:

We did not want to see you deprived of your "grass".
Consequently, your office droppings are being airmailed to you today under separate cover. It is unfortunate that you did not have the "yummy" (secretarial description)
tobacco on the plane as I am sure that the long trip with Ina could possibly have had more fruitful results.

Alas, my wife returneth and once again you must be classified in the fink category. I had to confess my wine sins as she already had inside information.

Soberly,

James E. White
