

MARIANAS WORKING GROUP

15
2,4,6
74

Captain William J. Crowe, Jr.	(OMSN)
Mr. Adrian L. de Graffenried	(OMSN)
Colonel Smith	(OMSN)
Mr. Tom Whittington	(Interior)
Mr. Brewster Chapman	(Interior)
Mr. Herman Marcuse	(Justice)
Mr. John Dorrance	(State)
Captain Gordon J. Schuller	(Defense)
Lt. Col. William Kenty	(Defense)

OUTLINE
MARIANAS STATUS NEGOTIATION

- I. Background.
 - a. Strategic Importance
 - b. U.N. aspects
 - c. Marianas separatist movement
 - d. Relationship of Marianas negotiations to JFSC negotiations and COM
 - e. Applicability of present negotiating instructions
 - f. Opening round
 - g. Expected Marianas positions:
 - (1) Substantial financial expectations
 - (2) Tough bargaining position on land
 - (3) Some indication sovereignty question will arise.
 - h. Next steps
- II. Nature of Political Relationship - alternatives
 - a. How close of relationship does U.S. desire in terms of various fundamental issues, e.g. ability to become state, courts, finances, etc.
 - b. What do these desires translate into, e.g. incorporated territory, unincorporated territory, commonwealth or unique status.
 - c. Relationship with Guam
 - d. Constitutional questions.
- III. Special problems - requiring decisions
 - a. Land questions
 - U.S. military and non-military land requirements
 - Relationship of present public land problems to negotiating environment.
 - Alternative courses of action.

06-417670

b. Financial arrangements

- Precise statement of U.S. facilities and services.
- Negotiating policy on operations support of Marianas government
- Role of financial support in agreement (should it be quid pro quo or otherwise?)
- Relationship of financial support to JFSC negotiations

c. Transitional problems

- Possibility of COM attempting to obstruct current negotiations
- Possibility of JFSC negotiations becoming protracted although agreement reached with Marianas
- Normal process of preparing Marianas for new status; including separate administration of the Marianas during transition

IV. Recommendations

a. Negotiating scenario - time factors

b. Executive action

- New negotiating instructions separately tailored to Marianas
- Any recommended land actions
- Contingency authority to deal with COM obstructions.

c. Legislative action.

ATTACHMENT: Draft U.S. proposal