Dear Mr. Ballow:

My records show that we did send a copy of the manual and our publication list following your call to me on January 7. However, because of the uncertainty of the mail, I am sending you another copy of each.

Also, I am attaching to this letter a list which contains a number of individuals who would be able to provide assistance in planning for the conduct of a constitutional convention. I mention in particular three individuals: John E. Bebout, Albert L. Sturm and John P. Wheeler. All three have had extensive consultation experience.

Two other individuals who could be very helpful to you are Robert Dodge of Honolulu and Victor Fischer of the University of Alaska.

Of course, we here at the League will want to be in touch with you and give you every possible assistance.

Sincerely yours,

William N. Cassella, Jr.
