Franklin Hayden Williams
U.S. Ambassador
Micronesian Status Negotiations

Dear Ambassador Williams:

Secretary Clements has asked me to respond to your letter of November 21, 1974 concerning the fifth session of Micronesian status negotiations opening on Saipan December 5, 1974.

Captain Mason has been detailed to serve as an adviser to the U.S. Delegation as you requested. Additionally, the Navy and Air Force are arranging to have the desired technical advisers available on Saipan December 5, 1974 for consultation on land acquisition and base development matters during this round of negotiations.

We wish you continued success in resolving the remaining tough issues.

Sincerely,

(Signature)
Rob. ...
Secy. of State
