COM Downs Crisis Plan

SAIPAN - The senate of the Congress of Micronesia Tuesday defeated a resolution asking God to set aside one day a year for international crises.

Sen. John Mangefel of Yap authored the tongue-in-cheek resolution.

His measure also offered the assistance of Micronesian islanders in dealing with such problems as fuel shortages, inflation and the "crisis of leadership" in the United States brought about by the Watergate affair.

Earlier in the congressional day, senators defeated another whimsical resolution that would have made Mangefel the sole consultant to the congress on governmental personnel and operations problems.

The resolution also was authored by the Yap senator.
