Envoy Is Visiting Districts

SAIPAN (MNS) --
Ambassador Barbara White, who arrived on Saipan last week, left Wednesday for a day-long visit to Rota.

She next will visit Tinian for a day before returning to Saipan. She will be accompanied by Miss Mary V. Trent, State Department liaison officer, on her trip to the other districts.

Ms. White is the newly appointed U.S. representative to the U.N. Trusteeship Council.

The ambassador leaves Saipan for Yap district tomorrow for a three-day stay. A spokesman for the State Department liaison office on Saipan indicated Ms. White will not be able to visit the Palau District during this trip.

After spending several days in Yap, she will depart for Truk District Tuesday for a two-day visit. She will leave Truk for Ponape March 14 and on March 16 will travel to Kwajalein to visit Ebeye in the Marshalls.

From Ebeye, the ambassador will visit Majuro and will continue back to the Mailand.

The purpose of Ms. White's trip to the TT is to gather information and "to listen and to learn" about the cultural, economic, political and social conditions in Micronesia in preparation for the next U N Trusteeship Council meeting scheduled May 28.
