

1-29-75

07
5

Nothing in this article will be deemed to authorize the government of the Northern Mariana Islands to impose any customs duties on the property of the United States, or to impose any taxes on the property or activities of the United States which a state could not impose on such property or activities.

3347