Dear Ed:

As you will know, I naturally feel highly gratified at the decisive results of the plebiscite on June 17, and I want to send you this special word of appreciation and thanks for your having made available to the Plebiscite Commissioner the members of those of your staff who were assigned to his office.

I know they played an important part in the diligent work which made possible that act of self-determination. I think our country can be proud of the results.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,
