

Mrs. Hera Owen, director of the Palau Museum, will represent the Trust Territory at the upcoming South Pacific Commission Workshop on Pacific Arts.

Two Federal Housing Administration officials, Alvin Pang and Donald Phillip, completed a tour of the Trust Territory last week.

Eight Peace Corps trainees arrived on Saipan to begin a nine week training program to become Commissioner Assistants. This may be the final Peace Corps program held in the Marianas.

The special conference of District Administrators has been delayed. Ponape's DistAd, Leo Falcam, was unable to make the original date. The conference is now scheduled to run from July 11th to the 12th on Ponape.

The Palau District Legislature has been given permission to join the Pacific Conference of Legislators.

Two Defense Civil Preparedness Agency officials arrived on Saipan last week to review and upgrade TT plans for disaster control.

$45,700 has been awarded to the Marshalls District to establish a multi-purpose center for the elderly on Majuro and Ebeye.

The Trust Territory's veterinarian Dr. William Smith left Saipan last week. He was presented with a resolution of appreciation for his "tireless and capable leadership" to Micronesia over the past two years.