David Sheely from Micronesian Status Negotiations Office called to say that he had heard that Senator Mansfield had set the calendar for the week beginning Monday, February 16. The first item on the agenda for the Senate that week will be the copyright legislation, followed by the Foreign Assistance Act. Following this "other business" will be discussed, the Marianas Covenant being top of the list. */

Sheely also advised that he was going to inform their "local man," who, in turn, will advise Edward Pangelinan.

S.S.

*/ The Senate will probably reach this on Thursday, February 19th, or Friday, February 20th.
