

Senate Okays Marianas As U.S. Commonwealth

Associated Press

The Senate has approved legislation to expand U.S. territory for the first time in 51 years by granting commonwealth status to the Northern Mariana Islands in the Pacific.

Senate passage by a 66-23 vote yesterday returned the resolution to the House for concurrence in amendments. The House passed the measure initially last July 21.