

April 23, 1976

03

MEMORANDUM FOR HUGH R. H. SMITH

SUBJECT: Employment of Mr. Neal S. Solomon

I have retained Mr. Neal S. Solomon to assist the firm in connection with the Northern Marianas Constitutional Convention. Attached is a copy of his resume.

Mr. Solomon is reporting for work on Monday, April 26, 1976. I understand that Ms. Siemer has already spoken to Ms. Kuryla about an office for Mr. Solomon. Mr. Solomon is being employed as an independent contractor rather than as an associate of this law firm. His salary has been set at the amount of $1,000 per month for a period of five months from the present until approximately October 1, 1976. In addition, I represented to Mr. Solomon that some portion of his hotel and other expenses in Saipan would be covered by the firm. If possible, it would be desirable to provide Mr. Solomon with some compensation at the conclusion of his first week of work because he suffers from a considerable cash shortage.

Please let me know if any additional arrangements must be made with respect to Mr. Solomon.

H. P. Willens

cc: Mr. Perlik
Ms. Kurlya
Ms. Siemer

25917

RESUMÉ

NAME: Neal S. Solomon

ADDRESS: 51 Braeburn Drive, Princeton, New Jersey 08540

TELEPHONE: (609) 921-9511

BIRTHDATE: January 12, 1951

EDUCATION:

Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut B.A. 1972 Major: History

Stanford Law School, Stanford, California J.D. 1975

HONORS:

Member of the State Bar of California.

Stanford Law Review, Member of Board of Editors 1974-75.

B.A. Magna Cum Laude 1972.

Several elected roles in student government at Yale culminating as Treasurer and Economics Officer of Calhoun residential college.

EXPERIENCE:

Educational Testing Service; July 1975; Employed to write questions for the Law School Admissions Test.

Stanford Law School; November 1974-May 1975; Research assistant for law school professor. Researched the role of the American Civil Liberties Union in the World War II Japanese exclusion cases, particularly the factual background and legal strategies as they developed in the case Korematsu v.
United States. The research involved personal interviews as well as newspaper searches. My research was summarized in a written report.

Lindsay, Nahstoll, Hart, et. al.; Summer 1974; Employed as a law clerk in a private law firm in Portland, Oregon. Work primarily involved legal research and writing legal memoranda.

Stanford Environmental Law Society; Summer 1973; One of a five-member team that researched and published a report concerned with property taxation and land use control. Included was a history of California's Williamson Act, a critique of that act and open space legislation of other states, and recommendations for changes in the Williamson Act. The report was prepared with cooperation from the Consultant to the California State Assembly Select Committee on Open Space Lands.

Charlie's Other Brother Restaurant; Summer 1972; Bartender.

Educational Testing Service; Summer 1971; Research assistant in verbal aptitude department.

Manager of student snack bar at Yale; 1970-71.

The Workbench (N.Y.C.); Summer 1970; Furniture salesman.

PUBLICATIONS AND MANUSCRIPTS:

Stanford Environmental Law Society, The Property Tax and Open Space Preservation in California: A Study of the Williamson Act (1974).

"May Day 1970": One of five students who in the school year 1971-72 researched the events of April and May 1970 at Yale; involving Bobby Seale and the Black Panthers, the mass demonstrations of May Day weekend, Yale's official reaction, and the reactions of administrators, faculty, and students. The work was done as a study in historical methodology. It required extensive interviewing and review of archive materials. Each of us then wrote several draft chapters in preparation for a book. One member of the group has since rewritten and unified the draft chapters. The product has recently been ~~accepted~~ ~~by~~ published.

"Legal Issues of Psychosurgery" (manuscript prepared originally for Stanford Law Review).

OTHER ACTIVITIES:

Member Law School Civil Rights Research Council (LSCRRC), 1975.

Representative of Yale Alumni Fund.

Active in athletics: soccer, baseball, softball, touch football.

Knowledge of French; small knowledge of Spanish.

Can type with speed and accuracy.

REFERENCES:

References can be furnished on request.

References:

(617)
495-3139

Richard Danzig	Professor of Law	96 Harvard Law School Cambridge, Mass. 02138
William Keogh	Associate Dean and Professor of Law	Stanford Law School Stanford, Ca. 94305
David Rosenhan	Professor of Law and Psychology	Stanford Law School Stanford, Ca. 94305
Donald Kagan	Professor of Ancient History	Yale University New Haven, Ct. 06520