Dear Jake:

It was good talking to you yesterday and to learn that you are now reasonably available to pitch in on our project. I am sorry to have delayed in reassuring you with respect to the scheduling of the Constitutional Convention.

For your enlightenment and amusement I am enclosing some recent clippings from a local Marianas newspaper regarding the Convention. You will note with interest, I am sure, that the task ahead for the Convention and its consultants is a simple one. I guess we will have to persuade the skeptics otherwise.

I am also enclosing an internal memorandum listing the briefing papers currently in progress. I would appreciate any thoughts you have about what additional papers should be prepared.

The omission of your "overview" paper from the list is not a deliberate oversight. As you know, I attach considerable importance to this particular paper and I am anxious to collaborate with you on it. It would be helpful to have a draft in hand as early in the week of June 21 as possible.

I am planning to go to Saipan next week for a few days, at the request of the client, to report regarding our activities. I hope to back in the office on Monday, June 21 or the following day.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Howard P. Willens
