Saipan, Mariana Islands 96950

Dear Roger:

I enjoyed meeting you during my recent trip to Saipan and look forward to working with you in the future. As you know, I have the highest respect for Jim Leonard and my favorable predisposition extends to anyone working with him.

As you know, one of the miscellaneous purposes of my trip was to obtain various materials which would be of assistance to lawyers in my office assigned the task of preparing briefing papers. It would be helpful if you could undertake to locate any or all of the following:

(1) Annual reports of the High Commissioner for the past two years;

(3) Any annual reports by the District Administrator regarding the affairs of the Mariana Islands district during the past two years; and

(3) Any statistics regarding the caseload or other aspects of the operations of the judiciary system in the Mariana Islands district.

I am sorry to burden you with this request.
I am sending a copy of this letter to Steve Loftus, since he indicated that he might be available to assist me in the acquisition of these materials.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Howard P. Willens
