Dear Howard:

Many thanks for your letter of May 26, 1977.

I am delighted to hear of your opinion letter on the eligibility of United States citizens to run in the first election. Dave Sablon spoke to me about the matter on several occasions and Larry Guerrero also pursued the matter with me.

I expect to be in Washington on one or more occasions before I leave again (!) for Saipan and would love to chat with you.

In any event I will give you a call later this week.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Howard N. Mantel
