

and instructs me. It also produces a certain nostalgia as it evokes those days of reorganization for the Covenant. I find particularly helpful, as we now look to the future, your exposition of the two problems of land alienation and legal representation.

Thank you for your thoughtful-ness in providing the Journal with such appreciation and all good wishes for the holidays!

Sincerely,

Mary Vance Trent
(Mary Vance Trent)

MARY VANCE TRENT
4000 CATHEDRAL AVENUE N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20016

December,

Mr. Howard F. Williams
Wilmer, Cullor and Pickering
1666 K Street N.W.
Washington

Dear Howard:

I have received with a pleasure the Georgetown Journal with your William and to me quite fascina article on the Western Mar Constitution and that in story of Political develop your language - both etc