

Third Northern Mariana Islands Constitutional Convention

-714-

Delegate Proposal No. 471

Date: June 19, 1995

It is proposed that a constitutional amendment be prepared that does the following:

Abolishes the 60-day re-employment provision so that retirees eligible to be re-employed pursuant to law, in any capacity, whether classified or under any contract with the government, will lose pension benefits immediately upon re-employment with the government. This provision should not be subject to legislative changes.

Permits re-employment of retirees (double-dipping) under the following terms:

. The pension will resume upon termination of employment

.The additional salary and service earned shall not be used in the computation of benefits upon reinstatement of retiree status.
