Honorable Herman T. Guerrero H.T.G.
President
Third Northern Marianas Constitutional Convention
Capitol Hill
Saipan, MP 96950

Dear President Guerrero:

As the Convention progresses with its fiduciary responsibilities, it became very apparent that the Convention requires the services of translators, Chamorro and Carolinian.

I would like to recommend that the Convention utilizes the services of the Language Commission. It has translators for both Chamorro and Carolinian and I am sure that the Commission will be very happy to assist the Convention in its translation needs as well as a savings for the Convention since they are government employees. May I recommend that the Convention utilizes the services of Mr. William Macaranas for the Chamorro translation and Mr. Jose Roppul for the Carolinian version.

If I can be of assistance in this manner, please let me know.

Sincerely,

FELIX R. NOGIS
Chairman
Committee on Executive Branch and Local Government
