

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURES
PLENARY SESSION, 7/13

1. Schedule: We have put out the schedule for next week. It will be in the Daily Journal for today. We will follow pretty much the same schedule we did this week. We will have plenary sessions on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. The committees will be meeting every day. We need to be finished with first readings by the middle of next week in order to stay on our schedule to finish by August 4, so I urge the committees to get your reports to the floor.
2. Publication after first reading: COP is considering our options with respect to publishing the results of our work at the end of first reading. We could publish a draft constitution before we start second readings and let the public have it for comment. Or we could simply publish a notice that the first readings are completed and interested parties can pick up a copy at our offices. We would like to know the delegates thoughts on that.
3. Procedure for delegate amendments: The written procedure on delegate amendments is in the Daily Journal. If anyone has any questions to bring to the floor, we can consider those on Saturday.

Thank you.
