The Third Constitutional Convention has under consideration the attached report and proposed amendment language, report number 5: Preamble. The Convention will revisit the Preamble for a second and final reading within the next ten days.

Changes may still be made to the Preamble before the Convention votes on it for the second reading. If you or anyone you know has an academic perspective on the Preamble and would like to submit comments, you may submit them to the Committee on Land and Personal Rights before the whole Convention votes on the Preamble again. Please address comments to Chairman Jose R. Lifofoi and deliver them to the Convention office at the Legislature Building.

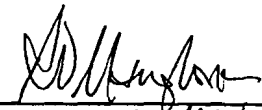

As you know, the Convention has very limited time in which to complete its work, so we would appreciate it if you could submit your comments early.

Sincerely,

HERMAN T. GUERRERO

Dear Mr. Torres:

The Third Constitutional convention has under consideration the attached report and proposed amendment language, report number 4: Article XIII, Eminent Domain. The Convention will revisit this article for a second and final reading within the next week. Changes may still be made to the article before the Convention votes on it for the second reading. You may submit your comments to the Committee on Land and Personal Rights before the whole Convention votes on the article again. Please address comments to Chairman Jose R. Lifofoi and deliver them to the Convention office at the Legislature Building.

As you know, the Convention has a very limited time in which to complete its work, so we would appreciate it if you could submit your comments early.

Sincerely,

HERMAN T. GUERRERO
President
