

HTG --

On the whole, I think we can do better than one day to translate half a page. If there is a problem with this, I suggest you authorize us to get it done as a part of the post-convention work. In any case, we should go with a quick translation by John Oliver for our first reading Constitution.

Deanne