Message:

Howard,

Please resent the attached page (Article IV: Judicial Branch). Tell Deanne that I input the document in the computer already. I am putting the memo form in a letter format.

Thanks.

living.

If the amendments are approved by the people, there will be time to assess the various changes and their success in dealing with the problems of concern to the delegates. Focusing on downsizing of government, deficit reduction and other perceived problems in the Commonwealth in the short term may permit reexamination of the gambling issue again in the longer term with more awareness of the advantages and disadvantages of that method of increasing revenues in light of the experience of Tinian and perhaps Rota.

Article IV: Judicial Branch

A new section has been added to the article on the judicial branch providing for advisory opinions. This is a way of expediting the resolution of disputes between the executive branch and the legislature or local governments. Instead of going through the full trial process, this article ~~shortens the~~
