THE COMMONWEALTH NEEDS OUR VOTES ON MARCH 2!

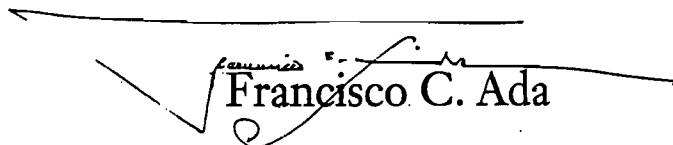

As a former lieutenant governor of the Commonwealth, I was impressed by the determination of the 27 elected delegates to address real problems in the Commonwealth and to come up with practical solutions on a nonpartisan basis.

Consider some of the important issues addressed by the amendments proposed by the delegates:

- Reduce the size of the government
- Reduce the cost of government
- Encourage cooperation between the branches of government
- More effective local government
- Reduction of the deficit
- Guaranty the independence of the courts
- Protect public lands for future generations
- Reduce Article 12 litigation
- Keep family lands in the family
- Control of casino gambling

Study the proposed amendments. Ask yourself: Is this amendment an improvement over the current situation?

Remember to vote—it is our constitution and our Commonwealth!

Francisco C. Ada
