

Third Northern Mariana Islands Constitutional Convention -177-

Delegate Proposal No. 85

Date: May 10, 1995

It is proposed that a constitutional amendment be prepared that does the following:

Prohibits anyone from seeking or holding any elective office or any appointive office defined in the Constitution which requires legislative confirmation if that person has been convicted of a felony, unless a full pardon has been granted.

One consistent rule would replace the present rules which are part of the qualifications for each individual position, and which are not always consistent.
