

Third Northern Mariana Islands Constitutional Convention

-213-

Delegate Proposal No. 130

Date: May 15, 1995

It is proposed that a constitutional amendment be prepared that does the following:

Deletes the current provision that the ceiling on the Legislative budget be divided equally between the House and the Senate.

Provides that each member of the Legislature gets a minimum allotment of $100,000; and each member of the majority gets a minimum allotment of $200,000. These allotments are for the operations and activities of the member's individual offices.

Submitted by:

Delegate HERMAN T. GUERRERO

(passed by the Legislature as a legislative initiative, and already sent to the Board of Elections, and submitted as a courtesy to put this proposal before the delegates)

CONSTITUTIONAL ARTICLE THAT WOULD BE AMENDED: Art. II, Sec. 16(a); Art. II, Sec. 16, adds new subsection (c)
