The Party was formed without prior knowledge or approval of the Naval Administrator. It appears to be patterned after the same named Party on Guam, which is the leading pro-Marianas-Guam integrationist group and is membered by the sympathetic Saipanese Group.

Announcement of establishment of the Party, and distribution of the Constitution of the Party, followed by two days the arrival on board of Jose Cruz, Member and Legislative Secretary of the Twelfth Saipan Legislature, now permanent U.S. Resident, Guam and ardent integrationist.

It is significant to note that signatories to the Constitution are all current Saipan Municipality employees, one of whom is a U. S. deportee. The consultant is a U. S. Citizen.
