1 June 1946

From: The Commanding Officer.
To: The Native Police Chief.
Via: The Public Safety Officer.

Subject: Treatment of Prisoners.

Reference: (a) Commandant, NOB Confd Ltr. Serial 075 dated 28 May, 1946.

1. Some months ago a "water cure" treatment was used by members of the Native Police Force, on a Japanese prisoner to obtain a confession. During the investigation that was held it was brought out that this treatment was with the consent and knowledge of a Naval and Marine officer.

2. You are hereby instructed that at no time shall any third degree methods be used to obtain information, work or for any other reason. Any violation to this order will be cause for severe disciplinary action.
