MEMORANDUM FOR GENERAL PERSONS

In response to your memorandum to me of February 14, 1953, transmitting the attached letter from Congressman Saylor on organic legislation for the Trust Territory, I am sending for your information a copy of the Director's replies to similar letters from Congressman Saylor and to Senator Butler's request for views on S. J. Res. 6, interim legislative authority for the Trust Territory.

P.S. You will recall that I have kept your office advised by telephone as things developed. What we are really waiting for now is Midkiff's return from his first trip around the Trust Territory as a report of his conclusions.
