MICRONESIAN SCHOLARSHIP FUND RECEIVES
$1,500 CONTRIBUTION

SAIPAN, M.I. (September 22)...The Yokwe Yuk Women's Club of Kwajalein, Marshall Islands, has contributed $1500 to the Micronesian Scholarship Fund. A similar contribution was made last year.

In thanking the members of the Club for their contribution, High Commissioner M. W. Goding said, "I think it is very fitting that most recipients of aid have been young Micronesian women and I know that they are very grateful and appreciative of the work the members of the Yokwe Yuk Women's Club have done to make such grants possible."

The Yokwe Yuk Club draws its memberships from the wives of American personnel working at the Pacific Missile Facility in Kwajalein. In 1963 this club took over the management of the Micronesian Handicraft Shop in Kwajalein. The Club operates this shop on a non-profit basis and regularly contributes the proceeds to the Micronesian Scholarship Fund.
