GUAM EDUCATORS VISIT SAIPAN

SAIPAN, MARIANA ISLANDS, TRUST TERRITORY OF THE PACIFIC ISLANDS,
(APRIL 22) - - - Three educators from the College of Guam arrived in Saipan this week to confer with Mariana Islands District education officials. Dr. Albert J. Hendricks, vice president of academic affairs extension services, and Gerald B. Schneider, counseling officer, arrived Thursday. Dr. Antonio C. Yamashita, president of the College of Guam arrived Friday.

Marianas District educational administrator Howard L. Kerstetter said discussions would focus on ways to improve the selection and admission procedures for Marianas District high school graduates who intend to enter the College of Guam. The possibility of College of Guam extension courses being offered in Saipan will be explored.

The visitors will conclude the series of meeting and return to Guam on Saturday, April 23.
